

	INDIANA DEPARTMENT OF CHILD SERVICES CHILD WELFARE MANUAL
	Chapter 2: Administration of Child Welfare	Effective Date: October 15, 2006
	Section 6: Administrative Appeal Hearings	Version: 1

POLICY [NEW]	OLD POLICY: N/A
---------------------	------------------------

- The Indiana Department of Child Services (DCS) recognizes the right of the alleged perpetrator to request an administrative appeal hearing if he/she is not satisfied with the outcome of the DCS administrative review.
- If the substantiated case is against a minor, the request for an administrative appeal hearing must be made by the child's parent, guardian, custodian, attorney, Guardian ad Litem or Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA).
- DCS will require that all request be made using the Request for Administrative Appeal Hearing and that the request be received by the DCS Central Office within eighteen (18) calendar days from date listed on the Notice of Administrative Review Decision.
- If the substantiated case is against a DCS employee or a child care worker, as defined in DCS policy 2.X Child Care Worker Investigation Review Process, the Administrative Appeal Hearing will be held within twenty (20) calendar days after the receipt of the hearing request, unless the perpetrator/appellant requests an extension of time for hearing preparation or other good cause.
- DCS will hold all other hearings within ninety (90) days of the date the request is received by Central Office. DCS will notify the appellant in writing of the hearing date at least 10 business days in advance.
- DCS acknowledges that the appellant has the right to bring witnesses and/or legal counsel to the hearing.
- DCS will not conduct an administrative review if a CHINS petition has been filed based on the substantiated determination, until the court has ruled on the petition. In the event the CHINS petition results in adjudication of child abuse or neglect by the person who requested the review, the request for administrative review will be dismissed. If the CHINS case is dismissed or closed without adjudication, or the adjudication does not include a finding concerning the person who requested the review, the administrative review will then proceed in accordance with this policy.
- DCS will not conduct an administrative review if criminal charges have been filed until the court has ruled on the charges. In the event that the perpetrator is convicted of any charges based on the substantiated CA/N, the administrative review will be dismissed. If the criminal case is dismissed, or otherwise concluded without a conviction, the administrative review will then proceed in accordance with this policy.
- The DCS administrative appeal hearing will be conducted and decisions issued in accordance with the procedures outlined in 470 IAC 1-4, except for 470 IAC 1-4-6.
- The presiding Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) will issue a written decision within
 - within fifteen (15) calendar days after completion of the hearing for child care workers or DCS employees; or,
 - within thirty (30) days after completion of the hearing for all other hearings.
- The ALJ's decision will be the final decision of DCS regarding the classification of the CPS investigation and report, subject to the right to judicial review as provided in 470 IAC 1-4-7.

This policy does not apply to administrative appeals of license denials or revocations that are currently heard and decided by the Indiana Family and Social Service Administration's Office of Hearings and Appeals.
